Love God ♦ Love People ♦ Share Jesus

Homecoming is Sunday, October 2. David Jones will be our guest speaker for 10:00 am Worship. There will be a meal in the gym following the service.

Another year is quickly coming to a close! Where does the time go? It seems like yesterday, tiny saplings were thrusting themselves through the melting snow, reaching for the warm spring air. Butterflies and honeybees flying from blossom to blossom.

Then to enjoy hot, lazy summer days laying in the shade of a mighty oak tree and to hear the laughter of children hoping summer will never end.

Then summer slowly fades into fall. A time when the days are short and the shadows are long. Of cool brisk autumn mornings. Of golden fields of grain gently swaying in the October wind. To enjoy a slow peaceful stroll across a dew laden field at twilight as the sky melts from a reddish orange to a soft velvet purple. The trees slowly letting their green "mask" fall only to reveal their true inner beauty! Gold, Red, Russet- colors of autumn! A time of cool breezes and russet sunsets. A single leaf falls!

Let us all take a breather and truly enjoy the beauty that exist in all of creation. Be still and know He is God!
